

Effective and responsible communication is essential to the success of the Office of Commissioner Peak. Volunteers must be mindful of their language and messaging, ensuring that their communications align with the values and objectives of the office. Volunteers are not authorized to make public statements or represent the Commissioner's Office in any capacity without prior approval.

All public-facing communications, including social media posts, press releases, and public comments, should align with the nonpartisan and professional nature of the office. Any personal opinions expressed should be clearly distinguished from official office communications. Confidential discussions or sensitive government matters must not be disclosed to unauthorized individuals or outside organizations. Any breach of this policy may result in immediate termination.

All information provided in this letter is from the opinion of Commissioner Rylee Peak and does not represent the views of any other government, business, person, or entity. This letter was produced by Commissioner Peak. This letter does not represent an official publication of the City of Moreno Valley or any other related entity.
