To maintain ethical standards, volunteers must disclose any potential conflicts of interest that may interfere with their responsibilities. A conflict of interest arises when a volunteer's personal, financial, or political interests could improperly influence their duties within the Commissioner's Office.

Volunteers must not engage in any activity that could create the perception of favoritism or bias. They must also refrain from using their position to seek special treatment or advantages for themselves, family members, or associates. Any conflicts must be reported to the Commissioner's Office for review.

All information provided in this letter is from the opinion of Commissioner Rylee Peak and does not represent the views of any other government, business, person, or entity. This letter was produced by Commissioner Peak. This letter does not represent an official publication of the City of Moreno Valley or any other related entity.
