Volunteers should dress in a manner appropriate for their role and the events they attend. Business casual attire is recommended for meetings and office-related activities. Volunteers attending public events, formal meetings, or representing the office at community functions should wear professional or semi-formal attire.

Clothing with offensive or politically charged messages is not permitted. Volunteers should also maintain a neat and well-groomed appearance to present a professional image.

All information provided in this letter is from the opinion of Commissioner Rylee Peak and does not represent the views of any other government, business, person, or entity.
